

ISIA Annual Awards 2014

The Irish Security Industry Association (ISIA) each year highlights the achievements of the private security industry at its Annual Awards. This year's awards will be held in the Powerscourt Hotel and Spa, Powerscourt, Co. Wicklow on the 1st November and is set to be our biggest event to date. There are always numerous sponsorship opportunities to allow you to demonstrate your support of the industry and the association. This year there are even more ways to support the members of the Irish Security Industry Association and their achievements.
