

Irish Security Industry Association

Seminar Invitation

Procuring Security Guarding Services

Tuesday 28th February 2017

Croke Park Conference Centre
Jones's Road, Dublin 3
09:30 – 11:00

Friday 3rd March 2017

Clayton Hotel Silver Springs
Tivoli, Cork
09:30 – 11:00

The Irish Security Industry Association (ISIA) would like to invite ISIA members and their clients to attend a seminar on procuring security guarding services.

The seminar speakers will provide detailed insight and overviews of exactly what needs to be considered when procuring security guarding services, the impact of the Employment Regulation Order (ERO) on costs and how regulation benefits everyone.

Those who attend will receive information on:

- » Standards in the Security Industry
- » The Employment Regulation Order (ERO), what to expect and how it will impact
- » The impact of regulation over the past ten years and the resulting benefits
- » Selecting a security supplier, items for consideration

■ Seminar Topics & Speakers

Procuring Security Services – Setting the Standards

Sarah O'Donnell, Communications Director, ISIA

Security Industry Employment Regulation Order (ERO) – Proposed changes and how it will impact

Alan Durnan, President & Chairman, ISIA Guarding Services Division

Regulation Benefits Everyone

Paul Scallan, Chief Executive, Private Security Authority

■ Who Should Attend?

- » Anyone with responsibility for security
- » Anyone with responsibility for risk management
- » Anyone with responsibility for sourcing security services

HOW TO BOOK

The seminar is FREE to attend, but you must reserve a place to guarantee availability. Reserve your place by emailing events@isia.ie or call 01-4847206

www.isia.ie